Max is a highly trained military canine who has always protected his fellow soldiers. But when he loses his handler and best friend, Kyle, Max is traumatized and unable to remain in the service. He is sent home to America, where the only human he connects with is Justin, and he is soon adopted by Kyle's family, essentially saving his life.

Max is a heroic war dog that was very close to his owner until his owner Kyle was killed in Afghanistan. Max was blamed for the death of Kyle but what really happened was another man ignored Max and kept moving through the battlefield. I think this book was a very inspiring novel. It proved the saying a dog is a mans best friend.
